ABOUT US

After Independence the concept of the role and activities of voluntary organizations had started maturing as there was a vast vacant space to work in the field of social, educational, health, justice and cultural arena. Being impressed and influenced with the philosophy of Swami Vivekananda few young educated persons backed by strong educational carrier come forward to form a voluntary organization in the periphery of adjoining Railway Industrial Township, Ghatak Road, Kanchrapara, North 24 Parganas, West Bengal under banner Jugal Nath Memorial Society having its main office at 3-A, Hare street, Kolkata -700001, West Bengal. The official journey of Jugal Nath Memorial Society was flagged off on 3rd November, 2004 under Presidentship of Mr. Mukul Roy, a social and political stalwart. With limited resource at initial stage the Society under took and in-depth social survey work in an around Kanchrapara to ascertain the buniing needs of the Society as well as the under privileged classes. In order to redress the emergent needs medical facilities were extended to the most effected clusters with arrangements of blood supply to the need based families in case of emergency. This minimum services had created tremendous effect to the under privileged societies especially to the SC/ST/Minority communities.

MISSION & VISION

Jugal Nath Memorial Society is driven by the mission of inclusive development of the economically weaker section of the society. The organization is committed to hone the skills of individuals by supplementing them with supportive programs and welfare activities. Jugal Nath Memorial society treads forward nurturing the ideal of societal advancement through individual empowerment. Focusing on educational guidance, skill development, welfare activities, Jugal Nath Memorial Society inculcates social responsibility and conscience among people, thereby initiating constructive socio-cultural metamorphosis.

Jugal Nath Memorial Society envisions a better tomorrow for the indigenous community through achieving individual development. The organization envisages a society devoid of any gender disparity. Empowering the economically weaker section is a principal need for hoistic development of the society. The welfare activities and committed efforts of the organization can bring a sea of transformation in people's quality of life and future. Development and learning being lifelong processes, the organization would continue to enhance its outreach among people of the region.

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Jugal Nath Memorial Society has focused on educational development of all the sections of the society right from the elementary school level to higher educational programs of college. The journey of the society's expansion is characterized by enhancing its outreach among people of North 24 Parganas, Birbhum, Bankura, Nadia, Bardhaman districts of West Bengal.

On behalf of Jugal Nath Memorial Society, I am extremely happy to inform you that we have completed our journey of 20 years with immense support from the communities, our supporters, Govt. administration and of course our dedicated team members.
